

Guide to Brighton

From iconic Brighton tourist attractions to beachfront cool, Brighton is a treasure trove of things to do and places to go. Vibrant, colourful, fun and free, Brighton offers the energy of the city and freedom of the sea. It really is unique.

Bursting with beachfront sports and events, tranquil green spaces within the city limits, plus Brighton tourist attractions and activities, there's so much in store just waiting to be explored.

What to see and do in Brighton

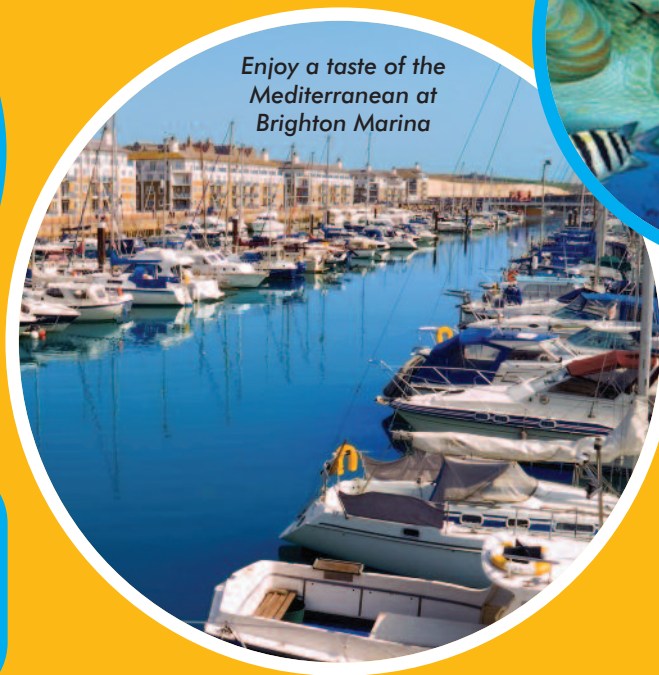

Brighton is overflowing with places to visit. And being such a compact city, most places to visit in Brighton and Hove are walkable too.

Experience the heritage of the Royal Pavilion and Preston Manor, indulge in the seaside fun of Brighton Pier and the Sea Life Centre or don your cultural hat for a visit to Brighton and Hove Museums. A unique mix of heritage, culture and cosmopolitan fun, Brighton attractions cater for all tastes and budgets.

Soak up the cosmopolitan vibe on the beach at Brighton

Enjoy a taste of the Mediterranean at Brighton Marina

Get nose to nose with nature at Brighton Sea Life Centre

Take your pick from the wealth of attractions in Brighton

And if you fancy wandering out of the city centre, Brighton Marina is only a short walk or bus ride away. Or why not check out one of Brighton's vibrant 'villages' – from the picturesque heritage of Kipling's Rottingdean to the quirkiness of Kemp Town, there's a whole new world just waiting to be explored...

Shopping

Funky fashions, chic boutiques, exclusive antiques, tempting jewellery, inspirational art...

From the lifestyle shops of The Lanes to the unique shops of Hove; the retro chic of the North Laine to the big-name stores of Churchill Square and Brighton Marina, shopping in Brighton really is retail paradise.

Brighton Marina - Love to shop but don't like to empty your purse? Offering the latest in waterfront shopping, Brighton Marina offers some of the best bargain stores within the backdrop of a stunning quayside location.

Home to the city's outlet shopping centre, Brighton Marina shopping offers some fabulous savings of up to 50% on high street ladies, men's, children and sports wear.

Brighton Lanes shopping - from quirky shops to live jazz...Crammed with quaint and wondrous shops and funky restaurants and cafes, the Brighton Lanes are best wandered lazily and explored as you find them.

You'll often find buskers livening up the streets, making the Lanes a great place for the battle worn shopper to grab a coffee and soak up the history to the sounds of some live jazz.

Kempton in Brighton -

East of the city centre and stretching as far as Brighton Marina, Kempton, Brighton is a flamboyant mix of grand seafront crescents, elegant squares, and a bustling High Street shopping area with a lively village feel.

Churchill Square in Brighton - Treat yourself to some heaven sent retail therapy Brighton style at Brighton Churchill Square Shopping Centre.

An innovative and modern Brighton shopping centre, Churchill Square, Brighton offers the very best in high street shopping.

Eating and drinking in Brighton

The secret ingredient to the perfect break is finding that fabulous restaurant, cosy pub or hip bar. And Brighton is packed full of them.

Consistently topping awards at the Observer Food Awards, whether you're after award winning cuisine, veggie treats, a tasty beachfront brunch or delicious cheap eats, Brighton is bursting at the seams with every type of international cuisine on the menu.

You'll also find that many of the places to eat and drink in Brighton score highly on the Scores on the Doors Scheme.

Love veggie food? Try: Terre a Terre, Food For Friends

Sucker for sushi? Check out: Moshi Moshi, Oki-Nami

How about some seafood? English's of Brighton, Riddle & Finns, Regency Restaurant

If you like cafe culture try: The World Famous Pump Room, Scoop and Crumb, Lovefit Cafe

Pubs & Bars

Whether its pre-show drinks or cocktail hour, wine bar chic or real ale revelry, if you visited a Brighton pub every day for a year, you'd still have some Brighton pubs to spare.

Vibrant and trendy, laid back and cosy, there are some great pubs and bars in Brighton and Hove. From the uber funky to the more traditional, bars and pubs in Brighton are bursting with designer décor, fine wines, real ales, hearty pub food and live music.

So whether you're looking for a quick drink with friends before hitting a club, a relaxed Sunday Brighton pub lunch, some traditional Sussex real ale, or a bottle of wine and a good old pub quiz, Brighton pubs and bars thread their way seamlessly around all areas of the city.

Entertainment & Night life

As soon as the sun goes down Brighton's nightlife gets going. From dusk to dawn, seven days a week, the city is alive with theatre goers, film enthusiasts, dancers, clubbers and party animals.

There's a huge range of entertainment venues, from comedy at the Brighton Komedia, world music, opera and ballet at the Brighton Dome, jazz at the Latest Music Bar, top stars at the Brighton Centre and pre-west end shows at the Theatre Royal. Catch one of the latest bands at a Brighton city centre pub or try one of Brighton's coolest clubs on the south-coast.

